IMB Affinity Focus:

European Peoples

Student ministry in Malta has had challenges in the past, but this year there are new people focusing on reaching university students. There are also many other opportunities for students who are here studying English short term, for the trade schools, and other campuses. Pray that these new leaders will work well together as they move towards the vision of seeing Maltese and all the other nations engaging with God's Word and saying yes to His call in their lives.
